August 14, the purser says a four-masted schooner with white foretopmast, was seen on the beach off Unimak Island. The Nome City attempted to speak her, but no one was aboard. Steamer Roanoke Arrives With More Than One Hundred Passengers and Over Half a Million in Gold Dust—Grampus Crew Arrives.

PORT TOWNSEND (Wash.) Aug. 22.—The exodus from Nome is fairly on, and each steamer arriving from there brings large numbers. The Roanoke, which arrived this afternoon from Nome, brought 130 cabin passengers, besides a large number in the steerage, which makes about one thousand who have arrived from the north this season and from reports each succeeding steamer will be loaded with passengers until the ice closes navigation.

Returning passengers report Nome as being remarkably quiet and filled with idle men, many of whom are willing to work for almost anything in order to get money, but there is no work, and great anxiety is felt by residents as to what will be done with so many destitute men. The Roanoke brought down $600,000 in dust, the bulk of which was shipped by the North American Trading and Transportation Company. Besides the above it is estimated that the passengers had on their persons $200,000 more.

The remains of Capt. E. B. Dixon of the Yukon steamer Louise had arrived at St. Michael, and will be taken to Seattle. The steamer Grampus sailed from Nome on the steamer Valencia August 11. The Valencia had no other passengers, as she intended visiting the various canneries along the coast and gather up this season's salmon pack.

UNCLE SAM'S DOCTRINE.
GERMANY MUST KEEP OUT.
BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.
ATLANTIC CITY, Aug. 22.—[By Atlantic Cable.] The Novos Vremya says that the fact must not be lost sight of that the German press is already beginning to urge the dispatch of German warships to the coast of Venezuela and Colombia, on the ground that it is difficult to foresee the outcome of the conflict between those republics.

Should the German government follow these councils a German-American conflict may easily result from the dispute between Colombia and Venezuela. The United States remains a stout supporter of the Monroe doctrine of "America for the Americans."

ENGAGEMENT NEAR TOMOCO.
BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.
WASHINGTON, Aug. 22.—The Colombian Minister, Dr. Martinez Silva, today received an official letter from the Minister of Colombia at Quito, Ecuador, which says an engagement near Tomoco, in which a force of Colombian revolutionists was defeated and ammunition and prisoners taken, had occurred.

The letter also discloses the satisfactory condition of affairs between Ecuador and Colombia, and disposes of reports of an armed invasion by Ecuadorian troops was to be apprehended.

The Minister at Quito does not refer to any trouble with the revolutionists. He states that almost all the revolutionary chiefs who had fled from Colombia and had taken refuge in Ecuador had gone back to Colombia. Dr. Silva considers this an explanation of the recent press reports that a force from Ecuador was about to invade Colombia, and fight a battle near Tomoco. Concerning the engagement near Tomoco, the letter states that Gen. Palustre, commander of the City of Barbacena, which had been recovered by the government, was in command of the forces. It proposes to use a total and active factor in merely politics. It was largely because Marquis de Iturbide's fact that his Cabinet ignored this fact that he was removed from office. He thought because he had a strong party behind him in the lower house that he was secure. But as the President's power was with telling effect and his only resource was to invoke the mandate of the sovereign order to carry his measures, he was forced to resign.

The native press is still dwelling upon the failure of the council of the powers to bring the Manchurian question to a definite settlement, and strongly states that all the peace negotiations will prove a sham until such settlement is made. Russia is recognized as the only winner in the whole course of the Chinese trouble, and that she has carried all points in the peace arrangements to her own advantage.

The veto of the Korean government upon the export of cereals from that country seems destined to materialize with Japan, inasmuch as it not only seriously affects her extensive trade with the peninsula, but is also claimed to be a violation of the treaties between the two countries.

It is alleged also that the drought in Korea is a most serious one, and will not in the least affect the total outcome of the year's crop. This question has long been a source of friction between the two governments.

SPORTING RECORD FIGURED OUT PERCENTAGE.

Clubs and Managers
Split a Difference.

Jeffries and Ruhlin Can Do Business.

Pearson's Bet on Shamrock Covered—Cresceus Makes Another Mark.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 22.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The managers for Jeffries and Ruhlin got together today to settle the question of percentage. It was given out that Jeffries would not fight unless he could get a much larger share of gate money than the sporting clubs were inclined to give. In fact, the figure which he favored was said to be 70 per cent. of the gross receipts. When the meeting was called today the two clubs seemed shy of bidding. This they finally offered 60 per cent. The managers for the fighters rejected, and demanded 65 per cent. After three hours of wrangling it was settled that the clubs should give 62 1/2 per cent.

No decision was reached as to a referee. Slier is not personally objectionable, but the local feeling is that a man should not be imported, as there are enough competent referees here. The fight probably will take place in November.

CLUBS CLUB TOGETHER.
(BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS-P.M.)
SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 22.—The Twentieth Century Club and the San Francisco Athletic Club formed a combination, and agreed not to submit competitive bids for the fight. It was decided that the fight should go to the Twentieth Century Club, and that the San Francisco Club should have the heavyweight contest in December, which will probably be between Fitzsimmons and the winner of the Jeffries-Ruhlin contest. The Twentieth Century Club is to give the San Francisco Club 10 per cent. of the receipts of the December fight.

CRESCEUS HAS NEW
TROTTER RECORD.
HE MADE THE FASTEST FINAL QUARTER EVER KNOWN.

Fifteen Thousand People Gave the Celebrated Horse a Grand Ovation at Beaumont-Lord Derby and Charley
Herr in the Class With "Also Rans."

(BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS-P.M.)
BEAUMONT, (Mass.) Aug. 22.—The celebrated horse, Cresceus, the magnet today that drew almost 15,000 people to the grand circuit meeting here. A sign of recognition of the favor shown him in the way of applause when he appeared on the track, the chestnut horse proceeded, in the second heat of his race, with Lord Derby and Charley Herr, to lower the track record by three-quarters of a second and to break the world's record of final quarters by trotting the distance in 0:29. By this latter performance, Cresceus lowered the record of thirty-seconds, which he himself made at Detroit about a month ago, when he went the mile in 2:05. The accomplishment of today was the fastest final quarter ever made. Both Peter the Great and Tommy Britton did the second quarter of a heat at Lexington, Ky., several years ago in 0:29. Some of the interest was removed from the race for all when Charley Herr was distanced in the first heat, thus leaving the affair to Cresceus and Lord Derby. All of the horses received a cordial greeting at the starting, and when they went off in the first heat Charley Herr had the pole, with Lord Derby beside him, and Cresceus on the outside.

At the quarter the pole belonged to Cresceus, for Charley Herr had gone up in the air, and at the half Cresceus was about two lengths in front. At the three-quarters Lord Derby was breathing into Ketchum's back. The Canth horse was far back and out of the race. Coming home Cresceus came in taking a half a length. The time was 2:07 1/2.

In the second heat Cresceus drew away from Lord Derby until, at the half he was two lengths to the good. At the three-quarters, however, Lord Derby had his nose at Cresceus's wheel and a little later he was actually ahead of Cresceus, but at that moment he broke, and it was all over. Ketchum drove home, creating the new last quarter record. The mile was in 2:06. The 2:25 pace, purse $10,000 (concluded) Draddy won three straight heats in 2:15 1/2, 2:14, 2:13. The Granger, Tom Mc. Danby, C. Reed, Patchen, St. Patrick also started. The 2:14 class, purse $500: Dan Patch won three straight heats in 2:07 1/2, 2:04 1/2, 2:04. RUSSIAN PROSPECTOR'S
ROMANTIC MARRIAGE.

WENT EAST FOR A WIFE AND GOT ONE QUICKLY.

Bill Beard, One of the Unique Characters
of Arizona, Married at Salem, Ill.—Was a Member of the Legislature and is Wealthy.

FLORENCE (Ariz.) Aug. 22.—(From The Times' Correspondent.) "Bill" Beard is one of the most notable of the many unique characters of Arizona.

For thirty years he has been a prospector through the hills of the Territorial. He has dug his footprints till only three years ago. Then it was that comparative wealth came to him through the sale of the Black Warrior copper claims near Globe. Part of the money received he reinvested in a mine
on Mineral Creek, east of Florence.

He chose to stay in Arizona, and to his bank account. Last fall he sought political honors and was elected to the lower House of the Legislature from Pinal county. His principal administration in office came through his violent opposition to the Governor, an opposition that precipitated some of the most disgraceful scenes, with Beard as the central figure. Though elected as a representative of the working miners, he chose to vote against an eight-hour bill. For this, a month later, while on a visit to his old home of Globe, he was seized by members of the Globe Miners' Union and ridden to the railway depot on a rail. Released, he soon picked up a revolver and,
with typical western pluck, marched
back through the camp's main street,
daring his former tormentors to reappear on the scene. Bill left the camp
when he was ready and not till then.

An interesting addition to the story of Beard's life is found in the following telegram from Salem, Ill., under date
of August 16:

Some thirty-eight years ago young William H. Beard, who resided just east of this city, and who had but recently been mustered out of the United States volunteer service, left his home
to seek his fortune in the far West.

He was a poor boy, without means. He drifted to Arizona, where he engaged himself to a wealthy ranch owner,
with typical western pluck, marched
back through the camp's main street,
daring his former tormentors to re-
appear on the scene. Bill left the camp
when he was ready and not till then.

SPOOKS DODGE
INVESTIGATOR.

Sycamore Grove Circle
a Raw Fake.

Materializing Farce
Draws Full House.

"Hands Off" the Rule of the Medium—Big Cash
Challenge.

A young man last night spent three hours' time and $120 in an attempt to catch a spook at Sycamore Grove. He failed, and considers himself a victim of very coarse work.

The investigator was from Missouri,
but it was shown him at very long range, and with numerous strings attached. Most people don't mind being tricked if it is done artistically, but this operation was very raw around the edges.

At the Spiritualists' Mecca it is "ten cents a peep," even inside the gate. At the "materializing seance" it cost a whole dollar. The "spirits" of the departed thus prove quite a source of revenue to the campers. Last night's sitting made Mrs. Elsie Reynolds a happy medium.

The proportion in the circle was sixteen to one against the manipulator of the white forms. The chairs were ranged horseshoe shape in one end of a dining room. At the extreme other end in the corner was a cabinet formed of dark curtains. Mr. and Mrs. Crin-dle sat at watchposts on either side of the opening, and no visitor was allowed to enter the cabinet of the cabinet
unless summoned by a "materialized spirit."

Crindle acted as official interpreter of what the spooks said and, with a string kept the light properly dim.
Mrs. Crindle helped in singing gospel hymns, slightly altered for the purpose, when the forms were a bit slow in appearing. Mrs. Reynolds breathed heavily through her nose as if she were doing a very hard graft, and talked baby talk when the curtains were drawn. She did this to impersonate
"Edie," who was said to be the kind spirit guide of the medium.

DISCOURAGING START.
In opening, a well-known local pattern-medicine dealer asked that all respect be shown to the manipulator of the white forms. The chairs were

Ta San Pedro.

The Los Angeles Traction Company has arranged with the Los Angeles and Redondo Railway Company for the crossing of the latter company's track at Howard Summit, and also on near Gardens. President W. He said that he hoped to have the line to San Pedro finished before the first of the year. If there were no iron-manufacturing centers.

Stone Throwers in Trouble.

The quarrel of three boys on Wilmington street yesterday afternoon resulted in the arrest of two of the participants and the treatment of the third in the Receiving Hospital. Benny Goldberg, who lives on Jackson street, was struck on the back of the head with a stone hurled by one of the other two. The injury is light, and was dressed at the hospital. After being treated he swore to complaints charging Jesse Lyons and Abe Wolf, diminutive youths, with battery. They were arrested, but released on their own recognizance. Lyons and Wolf asserted at the Police Station that Goldberg pelted them with stones before they threw at him. If young Goldberg desires to prosecute the charges, the case will be aired in the Police Court today.

WENDT'S FRIENDS ARE INDIGNANT.

BUT AFFAIRS OF WENDT & CO. ARE STILL IN A TANGLE.

Expert Goes to Work on Books of the Firm and There are Some Doings at the Office Which Was Closed for the Summer.

Patrick Henry Wendt's friends are indignant. Of course they are. Many of them had not heard of the tangle in the affairs of H. P. Wendt & Co. before they read the true story of his midsummer holiday in The Times. Their indignation will probably continue until Wendt returns from Europe and makes an accounting, or straightens out matters here, at a distance, through his legal representatives, who still maintain that he has committed no act that would warrant criticism.

Reporters of slow-going contemporaries who have failed to get within reach of the facts were jolted into the belief yesterday that there was nothing remarkable about Wendt's sojourn in London and his juggling with the firm's New York bank account prior to sailing for Europe.

Nevertheless there was great activity at the office of Wendt & Co. in the Hollenbeck Hotel Block yesterday occasioned by the action of the silent partner, O. H. Burbridge, in deciding to have the books of the firm audited. The Times announced that there would be "doings" yesterday at the office of the firm which was closed on June 1 for the summer and there were, in general, not yet ended, but the office was reopened yesterday morning, just as The Times predicted it would be, and the much ado that took place there was not about nothing.

The statement that an expert accountant would begin overhauling the books of Wendt & Co. yesterday proved to be true. The expert was on hand to begin his labor, and was kept busy throughout the day. Miss Susie Wendt, who holds her absent brother's power of attorney, was present to look after his interests, and Mr. Burbridge, who was given out that he claims against the firm were being met, and that Mr. Burbridge, as a member of the firm, and Mr. Wendt, as the representative of his brother, would be the office daily until September 1 to attend to any business that might come up in reference to the firm's affairs.

Many people, interested in one way or another, visited the office during the day. Some of them merely dropped in to inquire "What's the story?" Others have accounts that they desired to have settled.

It was given out that all claims against the firm were being met, and that Mr. Burbridge, as a member of the firm, and Mr. Wendt, as the representative of his brother, would be the office daily until September 1 to attend to any business that might come up in reference to the firm's affairs.

Naturally enough, Mr. Burbridge is very reticent about speaking his mind for publication. He realizes that he is "up against it," to a certain extent, but is making a brave show of taking care of the firm's obligations. Burbridge is known to have ample means, and he gives the positive assurance that not a creditor of the firm will lose a dollar.

Miss Susie Wendt, who holds her brother's power of attorney, stoutly defends her brother, but members of the Wendt family who were approached by a reporter yesterday emphatically refused to make any public statement concerning the muddle that has been occasioned by Wendt's juggling with the funds of Wendt & Co. on his trip to Europe.

In the meantime Burbridge is still unable to draw the cash of New Amsterdam Bank of New York, and he continues, with the aid of an expert accountant, to try to figure out where he "is at," while Wendt, the senior partner of the firm, is serenely enjoying life at Hotel Tudor, London, at fifty pounds, or thereabouts, per day.
